

Review Sentences with Multiple Tenses

Verbs show actions and states of being. Verbs show time, or tense. A verb's tense is used to show an action that happens in the past, present, or future.

Underline the verbs in each sentence. Write the tense of each verb.

1. The weather forecasters predict the storm will have brought 2 inches of rain by tomorrow. _____

2. She has announced that we will be learning about ancient Egypt next month.

3. The fans had waited three hours before the concert finally began.

4. Taylor is hoping she will win the spelling bee.

5. The movie will have started by the time we arrive.

6. I have practiced my speech five times, but I will practice it again before tomorrow. _____

Underline the verbs in each sentence. Then explain why each verb tense is used.

7. Mario passed his driving test, so he will be shopping for a car this weekend.

8. Fire had destroyed the roof of the house before the firefighters arrived.

Review Sentences with Multiple Tenses

Verbs show action and state of being. Verbs show time, or tense. A verb's tense is used to show an action that happens in the past, present, or future.

Underline the verbs in each sentence. Write the tense of each verb.

1. Mr. Chen claims that he will deliver the flowers by 5:00 p.m.

2. I think that she will be arriving soon.

3. Mom had painted the wood red before Dad assembled the bench.

4. The rain had started by the time we left the mall.

5. Anna has waited for Jim for 15 minutes, but she will sit in the coffee shop a bit longer.

- 6. Write a sentence that includes verbs in two different tenses.

Then explain why you used each verb tense.
